

Michaud Praises Choice of Karen Mills to Lead SBA

Friday, December 19 2008

WASHINGTON, DC &ndash; Today, Congressman Mike Michaud, a member of the House Small Business Committee, issued the following statement following the announcement that Karen Mills is President-elect Barack Obama&rsquo;s selection to head the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). &ldquo;President-elect Obama&rsquo;s choice of Karen Mills to lead the Small Business

Administration will be extremely beneficial to Maine and to the nation. In Maine, where small businesses are the rule rather than the exception, Karen has worked hard to build a stronger state economy. She has also been a strong proponent of increasing our nation&rsquo;s efforts on economic development in general. As a member of the Small Business Committee, I have seen the Bush Administration&rsquo;s attempts to weaken the SBA. Now is the time to strengthen the agency so that it can be a robust part of our economic recovery. I look forward to Karen&rsquo;s leadership in reviving this agency&rsquo;s mission to provide small businesses the capital, counseling, and advocacy that they need.&rdquo;

WASHINGTON, DC &ndash; Today, Congressman Mike Michaud, a member of the House Small Business Committee, issued the following statement following the announcement that Karen Mills is President-elect Barack Obama&rsquo;s selection to head the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA).

&ldquo;President-elect Obama&rsquo;s choice of Karen Mills to lead the Small Business Administration will be extremely beneficial to Maine and to the nation. In Maine, where small businesses are the rule rather than the exception, Karen has worked hard to build a stronger state economy. She has also been a strong proponent of increasing our nation&rsquo;s efforts on economic development in general. As a member of the Small Business Committee, I have seen the Bush Administration&rsquo;s attempts to weaken the SBA. Now is the time to strengthen the agency so that it can be a robust part of our economic recovery. I look forward to Karen&rsquo;s leadership in reviving this agency&rsquo;s mission to provide small businesses the capital, counseling, and advocacy that they need.&rdquo;

###