

Michaud Presents Outgoing VA Secretary Peake with Recognition Plaque

Thursday, January 08 2009

WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Mike Michaud, Chairman of the Veterans’ Affairs Subcommittee on Health, presented outgoing Veterans Affairs (VA) Secretary James Peake with a plaque in recognition of his work on behalf of America’s veterans. Chairman Michaud worked closely with Peake on health care for veterans during his tenure as head of the VA. The attached photo was taken in Michaud’s Washington, DC office.

WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Mike Michaud, Chairman of the Veterans’ Affairs Subcommittee on Health, presented outgoing Veterans Affairs (VA) Secretary James Peake with a plaque in recognition of his work on behalf of America’s veterans. Chairman Michaud worked closely with Peake on health care for veterans during his tenure as head of the VA. The attached photo was taken in Michaud’s Washington, DC office.

#