This vote count officially certified the Electoral College's vote for Barack Obama as the 44th President of the United States.

&ldquo;Today's count was a formality, but an important one. I very much look forward to working with Barack Obama and his team. We have a lot of challenges internationally and domestically, but the change represented by Barack Obama's election is a welcome one. His commitment to bipartisan solutions to our country's problems represents a new day in Washington.&rdquo;
