

Michaud Statement on Mitchell Appointment to be Special Envoy to the Middle East

Thursday, January 22 2009

WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Mike Michaud issued the following statement on the appointment of Senator George Mitchell to be a special envoy to the Middle East for the Obama Administration. “Today, I attended the swearing in ceremony of former Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell as a special envoy to the Middle East. The appointment of Senator Mitchell demonstrates President Barack Obama’s commitment to aggressively pursuing peace in the Middle East. Senator Mitchell is well respected for his work in Northern Ireland and his prior examination of the Arab-Israeli conflict. In both instances, Senator Mitchell’s approach was both thoughtful and fair-handed.

WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Mike Michaud issued the following statement on the appointment of Senator George Mitchell to be a special envoy to the Middle East for the Obama Administration.

“Today, I attended the swearing in ceremony of former Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell as a special envoy to the Middle East. The appointment of Senator Mitchell demonstrates President Barack Obama’s commitment to aggressively pursuing peace in the Middle East. Senator Mitchell is well respected for his work in Northern Ireland and his prior examination of the Arab-Israeli conflict. In both instances, Senator Mitchell’s approach was both thoughtful and fair-handed.

“I am confident that Senator Mitchell’s wealth of experience will serve him well as he undertakes this new and challenging position. Those of us in Maine have always been proud of the role that Senator Mitchell has played in Maine and the nation. I wish Senator Mitchell all the best as he confronts the critical issue of bringing peace and stability to the Middle East.”

#